

LOUIS & SALLY LANGIE
EAGLE SCOUT SCHOLARSHIP
May 2024

One-time award of $20,000 from the Louis & Sally Langie Eagle Scholarship Fund.

This non-renewable grant is distributed as $5,000/year for 4-years or for the time the applicant is attending a 4-year college.

Only one recipient is chosen each year.

Who can apply?

Applicants must have earned their Eagle Scout Rank in the Seneca Waterways Council, BSA, and meet all application qualifications. Applicants may have earned Eagle Scout Rank any time prior to submitting this submission.

Scholarship qualifications:

1. Applicant must be currently registered with a unit in the Seneca Waterways Council, BSA.
2. NEW: The scholarship is awarded to one graduating High School Senior who has plans to begin at a 4-year college immediately after graduation OR to a High School Graduate who is taking a gap-year and plans to attend a 4-year college within 15-months of their high school graduation date.
3. Academic success is a strong consideration, and a High School Transcript is required. Additional information is required for applicants planning a gap-year, and a report of gap-year activities will be requested before the scholarship funds are issued when the applicant begins college. Funding will be withdrawn if the applicant does not attend college.
4. Applicant will demonstrate leadership ability in Scouting and provide a record of strong participation in extracurricular activities outside of Scouting.
5. Applicant must indicate they have a clear career path and vision to support their college choice and explain how their college studies will help them achieve their career goal.
6. Applicant will provide a statement to clearly describe financial need, and the letter must be signed by both the applicant and parents/guardians. Financial need is not the only consideration for selection of the annual recipient.
7. Applicant will request a Letter of Recommendation from their Scout Leader or from a Scout volunteer who knows personally knows the Applicant.
8. Applicant will prepare and submit a 2-3-minute long video according to the guidelines provided at the end of this application.
9. Email a completed application with the three required documents and video link by May 1, 2024.
